Day 6 Vichy – Rocamadour - Rodez 385 km/239 miles 19 OCT 23

Today we will show you another highlight of pilgrim's places in France – Rocamadour.

The medieval village clings to the side of a cliff 150m above the Vallée de l'Alzou in a beautiful, rugged, unspoilt environment.

The holy village is a dizzy cascade of houses and chapels set against the rock with a château at the top. It attracts a huge number of visitors and pilgrims every year, and is a pilgrimage centre for the Black Madonna, venerated throughout the world. Rocamadour remains an essential stopover on the Pilgrim Route to Santiago de Compostela.

The Chapel of Notre-Dame or Chapel of Miracles houses the famous Black Madonna, a 12th century wooden statue whose colour remains a mystery. Another curiosity in this chapel is the sword Durandal, planted in the rock above the door by Roland after the defeat of Roncevaux in the year 778. The most intrepid visitors can continue along the „Way of the Cross“ up to the château and admire the amazing view from the top.

Note that elevators run up and down the valley to the top of Rocamadour. There is also a little train every 15 minutes from the car parks in the valley with commentaries in several languages.

Onward to Rodez, charming little town in the region Occitania.

RODEZ- perched on a rocky peak at an altitude of 2057 feet, this typical little southern french town has a lot to offer.

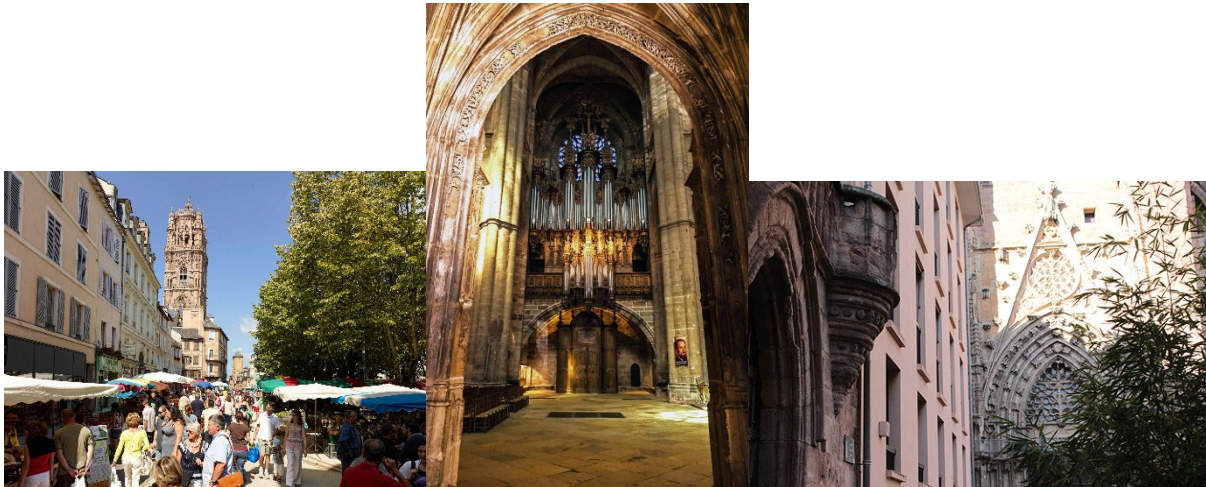

The emblem of Rodez, the splendid Cathedral of Our Lady, built between the 13th and 16th centuries out of pink sandstone, is a masterpiece of Gothic art. Topped by a magnificent wrought bell-tower in the Flamboyant Gothic style, this fortress-style historic monument, with two massive towers on either side of the western façade, contains a stone jube and carved oak stalls from the 15th century, as well as a 17th-century organ case.

Near the cathedral, discover the many attractions of the old town: the bishop's palace and its horseshoe staircase, the 15th-century Corbières and Raynalde Towers, the pedestrianised shopping streets and the superb medieval and Renaissance houses. There's so much to see in Rodez's historic centre. (B,D)
